DISASTER MANAGEMENT (A) DEPARTMENT

G.O.(Rt)No.204/2024/DMD Dated 17-02-2024 ,Thiruvananthapuram

Read:- Minutes of the 5th Netherlands Kerala round table conference held on 23.01.2023

ORDER

As per the minutes read above, it is reported that an exhaustive plan on Climate Down Scaling for Risk Informed Planning (CDRIP) by the Local Self Government institutions have been developed and the LSGIs need to be equipped to down scale as per the plan developed. KSDMA along with KILA have prepared a detailed plan jointly with the International Red Cross Red Crescent Climate Centre, Center for Disaster Resilience, University of Twente, and Royal Netherlands Meteorological Institute. The project is to be implemented in the Pamba Basin Districts over a three-year period. The funding commitment from the Government of Kerala for this project is Rs. 7.82 Crores and that by the Dutch institutions is Rs. 6.95 Crore.

As per the 5th round table conference, it has been agreed to grant in-principle approval for the implementation of the CDRIP project, subject to implementation commencing on obtaining commitment of corresponding funding support from the Dutch partner institutions.

Government have examined the matter in detail and are pleased to issue in-principle sanction for the implementation of the CDRIP project, subject to the implementation commencing only on obtaining commitment of corresponding funding support from the Dutch partner institutions to the tune minuted in the 5th

Netherlands Kerala round table conference. A Memorandum of Under Standing (MoU) between the partner entities shall be executed after the funding is secured and required approvals are obtained.
